

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1897-12-10

Letter from Edward R. Taylor to John Muir, 1897 Dec 10.

Edward R. Taylor

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Taylor, Edward R., "Letter from Edward R. Taylor to John Muir, 1897 Dec 10." (1897). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 2041.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/2041>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

530 CALIFORNIA STREET,
SAN FRANCISCO.

December 10. 1897.

My dear Minnie

Tom Magee was in my office yesterday, and in speaking of his deliverance from his recent perils & hardships, said he felt that it was due to nature's protection of him by reason of his love for her; that you had told him that the wild apple had more
seeds than the cultivated one, etc. I then set to thinking about your ^{own} experience.

02370

Miscellaneous

on the glacier with the little dog, and other great parcels of yours
from all of which you were so fortunately delivered. The result of it all was a sonnet composed
last evening, a copy of which I send.

Keith was ill
for ten days; but last Saturday was all right - I have not seen him since.

W. Edward R. Taylor
John Muir

I have just seen Keith. He is nearly quite himself again.